

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

CHINK ORDERED HOME TO WED A CELESTIAL

Wah Lee Receives Letter From His Mother Stating That he Must Get Married at Once.

DOES NOT KNOW BRIDE'S NAME

Before Leaving Hampton the Cantonese is Entertained in Purely Oriental Manner by His Fellow Countrymen Who Live in the Surrounding Towns and Cities.

Wah Lee, the Chinese laundryman of Armistead avenue, departs today for Baltimore en route to Canton, China, where he has been called by his mother in a peremptory note, to come and wed a Celestial beauty whom she has picked out for her son's bride.

There was much feasting and dining in Wah Lee's rooms yesterday where a score or more Chinamen congregated to bid their countryman good speed on his happy mission. He will stop in Baltimore where his countrymen will give a reception in his honor and then he will stop in New York where the feasting will be continued before Lee takes the steamer for the Orient.

Wah Lee received a letter from his mother Friday commanding him to come home and marry a girl whom she picked out for him, as is the custom in that country. Lee has never seen the girl and does not know who she is.

Wah Lee's mother lives in Canton. The bride-to-be's father furnishes the girl with enough clothes to last her two years and all the furniture for the home. Lee's mother paid $600 for the girl. Lee is only 24 years old but he says he should have married six years ago according to the customs of his country. He intends to remain in China only six months and then return here and resume his laundry business, which he has turned over to a friend to conduct in his absence.

ROYAL ARCANUM OFFICERS.

Alfred T. Turner Succeeds Mr. Robson, Deceased, as Secretary.

Mr. William T. Westwood, clerk of Wythe Council Royal Arcanum, received an official communication from Supreme Regent H. C. Wiggins yesterday announcing the death of supreme secretary, Mr. S. O. Robson and the selection of Mr. Alfred T. Turner to the position. Mr. Turner was the auditor in the secretary's office. Mr. William F. McConnell, a member of the board of trustees from New York, will become the auditor, and Hon. Frank W. Dickinson will succeed Mr. McConnell on the board of trustees.

Rev. P. T. McFadden, D. D., has been appointed the member of the finance committee in Virginia, succeeding the late Mr. Irving of Norfolk.

The new orders of the supreme regent will be of great interest in Royal Arcanum circles.

W. C. T. U. to Hold Meeting.

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon the Woman's Christian Temperance

The Grandest Showing of Men's Winter-Weight Garments YOU'VE EVER SEEN.

We've been busy as bees the past week fitting men and boys with good, warm, serviceable and stylish suits and overcoats.

Not a firm in the city can boast of a bigger or better assortment. We have sold nearly twice the number of suits and overcoats so far this season that we did last year. This only goes to show the great popularity we've won. Then, again, it shows faith and confidence the men of the Peninsula have placed in our made-for-service garments.

FIREMEN TO GIVE A FAIR.

Bazaar Will Last a Week and Will Be Held Early Next Month.

The members of the Hampton Volunteer Fire Department have decided to give a fair, which will last a week, about December 3. As the men who belong to the department volunteer their services to the town it is expected that they will have the hearty support of the community when they give this bazaar as it is for the express purpose of raising money to buy needed equipment and uniforms. The committee having charge of the arrangements is composed of the following persons:

W. V. Wood, R. L. Tennis, W. J. Weymouth, S. S. Cunningham, F. W. Darling, Charles Hewins, R. Q. Hill, A. Hull, W. F. Diggs, Arthur E. Hall.

THREE PERSONS KILLED

One Woman Shot to Death by a White Man.

MURDERER THEN COMMITTED SUICIDE

As Policemen Were on Road to Arrest Fellow, He Took His Own Life—Young Man Crushed to Death by Train.

(Special to the Daily Press.)

ABINGDON, Nov. 5.—Three deaths by violence is Abingdon's record since Saturday at sunset. About nine o'clock Saturday night John Hawkins, a young white man, shot and killed Mrs. Garrett, the divorced wife of William Garrett.

Sunday morning the officers of the town had gotten sufficient evidence to warrant the arrest of Hawkins, but before this could be done he heard of it, kissed his wife and three children, told them good-bye and taking his shotgun went a few hundred yards from his home and killed himself.

Sunday about one o'clock a young white man whose name is Shipley, in attempting to jump from a moving freight train, at the Abingdon depot, fell under the train. One leg was crushed and his skull so injured, that he died last night. Shipley was taken to the Abingdon hospital, his leg was amputated and everything possible was done for him. He was from Bristol.

BIG VOTE EXPECTED

Democrats as Well as Republicans Are Working Hard.

As today is election day the State banks and other places closed by law will have their doors shut but the politicians will be busy as bees from the time the polls open until they are closed getting out the vote. It is expected that there will be an exceptional large vote cast.

The Democrats are confident of getting out their full strength and County Committeeman Harry Libbey of the Republican party is making strenuous efforts to make a good showing and from all indications he will succeed.

ROWE'S DEPARTMENT STORE, HAMPTON, VA.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. IS THE COMPANY

Would advise any one who is looking for a good thing to see Manager E. R. Shield, or some other of its representatives of Hampton, Va. They are J. H. Gardner, R. A. Chandler, E. R. Hudgins and R. M. Forrest.

My policy was a 10 year Endowment, for $500.00. Issued Oct. 22, 1892. On Oct. 20, 1906 the Company sent me my settlement of $500.00 and a final dividend of $35.28, making a total dividend of $535.28. Leaving the $500.00, costing me $430.66. I have had protection of $500.00 for 10 years, should I have died.

Would advise anyone to see these people if they want something to leave a child or children. In my opinion there is nothing better. I understand you can get any amount you are able to pay for, up to one million dollars.
